Outcomes 5,6,7

Interventions (Sphere of control)

- Capacity building
- Strategic resourcing
- Direct lobbying and advocacy
- Knowledge building and strategic communication
- Training and accompaniment
- Exchange and dialogue
- Networking and alliance building
- Core, long term funding
- Rapid response funding
- Security funding
- Connecting local to global
- Influencing donors and convening new actors
- Sharing information on what works
- Developing data for advocacy
- Conducting and disseminating research
- Documenting and mapping resource flows

Intermediate steps (sphere of influence)

1. Partners have improved skills and infrastructure to pursue their mission and grow in influence, scale and power
2. Partners have the capacity to mobilize constituencies to create broad and inclusive bases of support for social change
3. Partners are aware of the political landscape and have a common analysis of the structural factors and proposed resolutions
4. Partners of the women’s rights and other relevant movements are strengthened and build healthy and effective alliances.

Enabling environment

Partners

- Collective action

Collective action

Collective action

Collective action

Lobby targets

- 6. Policy makers and funders have incorporated demands by CMI partners in relevant laws, policies and funding practices. The laws and policies are implemented
- 7. Partners have greater control over resources, including more and better funding, and decision-making.

Impact (Sphere of concern)

8. Civil society and broader society
- Women’s human rights are respected and sustained by communities and individuals.
  - Women’s human rights violations are recognized
  - Women and girls have safe environments
  - Women are included in all decision making processes

- More and better philanthropic resources

- Human rights and equality for women are respected globally
- 9. Make active use of their rights
- 9. Have bodily integrity and sexual rights
- 9. Have control over economic resources
- 9. Have political voice
- 9. Live safe and secure lives

8. Public sector
- Laws and policies are implemented with adequate budgets
- Policies and legal frameworks promoting women’s rights and security are in place
  - Policies and laws are base on equality and rights
  - Women are included in peace building processes

8. Corporate sector
- Corporate actors respect and fulfill human rights, including women’s rights.

5. Social norms (including attitudes, values, beliefs, behaviors and practices), have shifted in support of women’s, girls’, and trans* people’s rights.